NOTE.

NOTES ON THE COLLATION OF PARISINUS 7900 A.

The following variations from the collation of Parisinus 7900 A found in Keller and Holder's critical edition of the Odes and Epodes of Horace (1899) are the result of a recent reading of the manuscript. As a third edition of this work can not be looked forward to with reason for some years to come, it may be of value to students of Horace to have these variations made public, since they somewhat improve the standing of the manuscript. Such variations as were noted in the Epistles have been sent to the editors.
